

FALL 1993

WPC OPEN HOUSE SPECIAL EVENTS

WPC MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Today's musical interlude is provided by students from the College's Jazz Program: Lonnie Hampton, saxophone, is a sophomore from Spring, Texas; John Hebert, on bass, is a senior from Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Paul Krassen, a senior on piano, is from Huntingdon Valley, Pa.; and Larry Love, on drums, is a junior from Atkinson, New Hampshire.

ACTS (ALUMNI COMMITTED TO STUDENTS)

ACTS is a volunteer organization of William Paterson College composed of a growing number of WPC alumni affinity groups related by academic major or specialized interest area who are committed to 'giving back' service to the College via helping students.

Student Center Ballroom and Student Center Art Gallery

ALAN LAZARUS, CHAIR OF THE ART DEPARTMENT, invites everyone to the two-story glass-walled and domed courtyard hall to view the various art exhibitions, the most up-to-date art studios, and computer graphics area.

The Ben Shahn Galleries present in the East Gallery Elliot Miller-Sculpture; The Rational Mindset-The Use of Geometry in Painting Featuring John Dinkey, Vito Giacalone, Jane Haw, Betsey Meyer, Nancy Nikkal, Dave Raymond, Jim Ruban and Burt Wasserman in the Court Gallery; and in the South Gallery-Lew Graham- Tree Heart.

Ben Shahn Center for Visual Arts

The Art Dream was produced in the computer art laboratory at William Paterson College (Center for Computer Art and Animation). The Art Dream was created and directed by David Haxton, a faculty member and computer animation teacher. The Art Dream won a golden plaque award at the Chicago International Film Festival.

Also, produced by the WPC Center for Computer Art and Animation:

A Compilation Tape: 'The Art Dream' 1988; 'Columbus on the Edge', 1989; 'Camera Work' 1990; 'Women of Avignon' 1991.

Student Center Gallery Lounge

BOOKSTORE

The William Paterson College Bookstore located in the Student Center lower level will be open for your convenience. Please visit.

COMPUTER SCIENCE CENTER Coach House

Please tour this fine facility and see demonstrations on various computers and computer equipment.

JAZZ CONCERTS

October 31: Terra Brasil-Shea Center presents an autumn treat as the Jazz Room brings a taste of the tropics via this rhythmically delicious group-Terra Brasil- headed by pianist Cidinho Teizeira and his sister, vocalist Vera Mara. A hot toddy sure to light some fires on this Halloween afternoon. All Jazz Room concerts are held in Shea Center for Performing Arts on Sundays at 4:00 p.m.

LIBRARY

A $10.1 million expansion, from 40,000 square feet to 100,000 square feet, of the Sarah Byrd Askew Library is in progress. In addition to increasing the physical size of the building, the library's bound collection will increase by 33 percent and the seating capacity by 100 percent. It is expected that the library project will be completed in one year.

STUDENT LIFE Student Center Ballroom

Join members of some of William Paterson's student organizations. Members of the Student Government Association (SGA), Student Activities Programming Board (SAPB), and Student Development will be available to answer your questions.

THEATER

The Hunziker Theatre: Uncommon Women and Others by Wendy Wasserstein
November 2,3,4 and 5 at 8:00 p.m.

WPSC RADIO

WPC students Richard Rossillo, of Ridgefield, is a '93 graduate of William Paterson. Rich was appointed as the Graduate Assistant of the college's radio station, WPSC, and awarded a fellowship for his graduate studies. Rossillo served as news and program director during his undergraduate years at WPSC. He works at WERA (1590 AM) in Plainfield, and at WEVD (1050 AM) in New York City. Rich is also the host and executive of 'Night Talk', WPSC's longest running public affairs talk show; Kevin Serio, of Nutley, is a junior communications major and operations manager of WPSC. Kevin was previously the sports director and still provides commentary of pioneer football, basketball, and baseball games on WPSC. Kevin was a finalist in the 1992 national college radio awards for creative production and PSA work; and Kristine Novak (Grosholz), of Wayne, is a senior at WPC majoring in communications. She currently holds the position of news director at WPSC. Kristine is the field reporter for WPSC's presidential and local election coverage. She served as an intern at WDHA (105.5 FM)/ WMTR (1250 AM) in Dover and currently works at WGHT (1500 AM) in Pompton Lakes. All will be reporting live from the Student Center Ballroom.

Laser Hits 89 serves the greater Wayne area including Pompton Lakes and Paterson. The station is located at 88.7 on your FM dial.